

NO TITLE (LEADER FOR THE UMMAH)

The party would not become Leader for the Ummah if she did not yield to it and obey it. the Leader would not remain a leader if he had no one to lead , and the Leader would not be leader unless the leadership were exclusively to him, because the notion of leadership necessitates the presence of obedient people , and rejects the possibility of accepting two leaders at the same time.

Therefore, the party would not remain a leader unless the Ummah were obedient to it. It would not be able to acquire the leadership unless it were alone the obeyed Leader.

Therefore , the party should undertake the necessary steps which would make the Ummah progress in obedience to it, with consent and peace of mind, and should also make its thoughts dominate society in a way which lead to the paralysing of all the other leaderships ; thus it resumes singlehandedly the leadership of the Ummah.
